1. Risk Warning

This risk warning is issued jointly by the Organising Authorities (as defined in the F11SHC Notice of Race) of the Flying 11 Sydney Harbour Championship (F11SHC) and Roads & Maritime Services (RMS), pursuant to the Civil Liability Act 2002 to all persons wishing to participate in the sailing activities conducted by the Organising Authorities. Participants are warned, that regardless of the precautions which might be taken by reasonable and experienced persons, sailing can be a dangerous pursuit and participants are exposed to significant risk of property damage, physical harm, and possibly death. As an indication these risks may include but are not limited to:

- The extremes of weather and sea conditions
- The potential that control of vessels may be lost resulting in collision with objects or other vessels
- The sudden movement of the vessel at any time and the possibility that participants may fall or be thrown overboard resulting in drowning.
- The possibility that participants may be injured by equipment on the vessel
- The absence of immediate medical care and the likelihood that significant delays may occur before medical care is available
- Exposure to the elements for extended periods.

The Organising Authorities and RMS also warn participants that regardless of their best intentions, they may be unable to render assistance to participants who are in distress. Participants are warned to consider the above risks and all other risks before deciding to participate in any events with the Organising Authorities. Participants are also advised that although the Organising Authorities are covered by third party liability insurance that this insurance does not extend to participants. Any participant who considers they have a need for insurance must make their own private arrangements with an insurer.

2. Acknowledgement & indemnity

The attention of all participants in activities of the Organising Authorities is drawn to the above Risk Warning in addition to the 2013-2016 Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS) promulgated by the International Sailing Federation (ISAF), specifically Part 1, Fundamental Rule - Rule 4 which covers the decision to race. Each participant and his or her parent or guardian acknowledges that he or she has read the Risk Warning
